Dear Mr. Ray,

Thank you for your most interesting and subtle letter of June 14th. It was helpful in furthering my understanding of your legal situation and plans. Of course, your reference to the late Joe Valachi is well taken.

My point on the film insurance is this: the "rules" are quite different (more difficult) than either novels or plays. I know this from experience.

I'm sure I'll be much with you. We hope to be much with you in telling this historic saga.

Sincerely,

Donald Freed

PS. Enclosed is a piece on the King assassination written by my associate, Jeff Cohen, and published in the mass paperback, Conspiracy By Omaley(Signet).
